

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) is a Specialised Agency of the African Union and the continent's self-monitoring and peer review tool for the promoting good governance. Launched in 2003, the Mechanism is acceded to voluntarily by African states and exists to create a platform for reviewed states to improve constitutionalism and policy formulation, adoption and implementation. The mechanism establishes best practices and supports member states in monitoring compliance with established African Union standards and principles. These practices and standards are catalysts for transformative leadership needed to achieve political stability, high economic growth, sustainable development and accelerated sub-regional and continental integration. The peer review processes provide a high level platform for experience sharing and promotion of successful best practices including identifying deficiencies and assessing requirements for national capacity building.
