Country: South Africa

The African Peer Review Mechanism is implementing a Research Fellowship Program, with support from the African Development Bank (AfDB), that is directed at engaging a researcher fellow who have earned PhD from internationally recognized universities or schools¹. The program seeks researchers in the fields of international relations, global affairs, public administration, public governance, law, public finance management, political science, economics, business finance, international trade, development studies or any other field of study relevant to economic governance and corporate governance.

The Applicant should have the following:

1. Minimum of a PhD in Corporate Governance, Business Administration, Business Economics, or related fields.
2. Academic and/or policy research experience with research institutions, universities, think tanks or policy advisory services on corporate governance in Africa is required.
3. Experience with the African Union or other international institutions in the above disciplines and areas is an added advantage.

The fellowship is scheduled to commence in the second week of May 2020 and will run for a period of one years.

APRM seeks to engage qualified Africans to contribute to the development; production and dissemination of corporate governance research on the continent through the APRM-AfDB Fellowship Program. Interested candidates must provide information verifying their suitability and qualifications by submitting the following documents:

1. Motivational letter – a statement in expression of interest, suitability and brief description of the key research project the applicant seeks to pursue at the APRM
2. Curriculum Vitae – Send updated CV with references
3. List four referees – At least two referees being nationals of the African Union
4. Writing samples – Published or unpublished academic or policy research.

Eligibility criteria, establishment of the short-list and the selection procedure shall be in accordance with the African Development Bank's "Procurement Policy for Bank Group Funded Operations", dated October 2015, which is available on the Bank's website at www.afdb.org.
